FOREWORD

Famous people in history have made great names for themselves, whether as poets, artists, sculptors, statesmen, or authors. Each deemed it sufficient to sign his name to his masterpiece, in order to impress indelibly upon the minds of people in general his ability in whatever field he excelled.

While not assuming a place among the greater people of the world—past, present, or yet to come, we, the class of '46 endeavor to set apart in the minds of our classmates the memory of our happy days at the Mount by this, the 1946 "Mount."

DEDICATION

We lovingly and reverently dedicate the 1946 Mount to Monsignor Brown, in whose death we mourn the loss of a beloved priest, a kind friend, and a generous benefactor.

The Very Reverend Monsignor John M. Brown, V. F.

Mount Editorial Board

We are proud of the privilege of compiling the 1946 Mount. Our aim has been to produce a simple and interesting account of our everyday life during four happy years at Mt. St. Joseph Academy. It is our hope that all readers of this seventh edition of our annual, and the members of our class, in particular, will not be disappointed in our humble efforts.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Four years ago, when we entered Mt. St. Joseph as freshmen, graduation seemed to be an event so far removed from us that we scarcely gave it a thought. We looked upon seniors as a group to be envied because of their size, great wisdom, the many activities in which they took part, and above all because of a certain prestige that distinguished them from underclassmen. It would be ages, it seemed to us, before we would hold that coveted title.

Tonight, we realize all too keenly how quickly four happy years at the Mount have passed. With mingled emotions of sadness and joy, we are approaching our goal, graduation. The pages of memory record many good times we have enjoyed, knowledge attained through study, work of various types, and ideals achieved. These memories are indelibly impressed upon our minds. It was pleasant to pass on from class to class, closely bound together as a friendly unit in heart and interest, until we reached our last and happiest year at the Academy.

That which we will cherish most through the years is the recollection of the sincere friendships we have formed with our priests, Sisters, and athletic coaches. They have made our Catholic education a priceless heritage that will be our strength in the service of God and of our fellowmen, as we take our places in the world of tomorrow.

We thank Mother Mary Regis, also our principal, Sister Mary Annunciata, and the members of the faculty for the kind direction and help they have always given us. Foremost among our welcome guests this evening, we pay a tribute of gratitude to our self-sacrificing parents. They have made it possible for us to reap the harvest of good things for time and eternity with which the Mount has provided us.

CLASS SONG

By Lorraine Lee and Patricia Battles

Mount Saint Joseph, we bid fond adieu;
To You, Alma Mater, we'll always be true;
Scenes of old friendships, songs and old cheers,
Mem'ries that fade not through coming years;
When problems may face us, and dark skies come, too,
Then we'll seek consolation, Alma Mater, from you.

St. Joseph's you're worthy of glory and praise,
And to sing of your standards our voices we raise;
To you we owe knowledge of truths most sublime,
Truths which never can change with the passing of time.

Alma Mater, your teaching will e'er be our guide,
And we pray that your spirit may with us abide;
We'll think of the days we have spent with you here,
Mid happy surroundings, teachers, classmates so dear;
We pledge thee our future, loyal, as before,
'Til the stars in the skies shall burn no more.

Class History

Our life at Mount Saint Joseph began with our country in the throes of the Second World War. Too young to take active part we assumed and endured willingly, if not real hardships, at least many sacrifices incurred by the world-wide conflict. We learned rationing of shoes, food-stuffs and other essentials. We bought war stamps and bonds, we said goodbye to friends and relatives who left to serve their country—some never to return. We prayed constantly for peace. Willingly we sacrificed many school activities.

In August, 1945 hostilities ceased and we entered our senior year in September with much confidence and determination. Our ambitions ran high. We had a renewed faith in the world.

Following a long established custom we began by dedicating our studies and activities to Our Blessed Mother. Looking about for a leader to guide our destinies we chose Richard West as president with Daniel Carroll, vice president, Martha Noonan, secretary and Robert Mullin, treasurer. Our Senior Student Council included William Flory, Richard Mangan, Patricia Battles, Charlotte Alexander, Samuel Cotrupi, Joseph Czachor, June Gale, Jean Chamberland, Arnold LeFrancois, David Keefe, Veronica McArdle and Lucy Flory.

Work began on our student publication "The Clarion" with Charlotte Alexander as editor-in-chief. Daniel Carroll and Christine O'Brien were chosen co-business managers.

October 2 under the direction of the Reverend Richard Hagerty, S.J., the annual retreat opened. A major event in academy life, this retreat lasted three days and was enjoyed by the entire student body.

Our social season began very successfully on October 29 with the Freshmen as our guests. Taking advantage of our seniority rights we enjoyed many laughs during initiation. Following the program dancing was in order.

Elected as co-captains of our football squad were William Flory and Richard West and on the coveted All-State Team we find William Flory, Thomas Alberico, and Frank Cioffi with honorable mention to John Mooney, Richard Sullivan, Bernard Hurley, Richard West, Paul Mangan, Guido Forte and Alphonse Cioffi.

To satisfy the yearning of many aspirants to fame in art we organized the first M. S. J. Art Club, named it the "Lukeyan," and chose talented Doreen Burke, as our president.

Entertainment which delighted capacity audiences was provided November 21-22 when our M. S. J. boys presented the Minstrel "When the Lights Go On Again." Results could not have been otherwise with Harold Young as interlocutor, Bernard Hurley, Paul Bresnehan, David Keefe, senior soloists, and such witty and skillful endmen as Samuel Cotrupi, Arnold LeFrancois, Joseph Costello, Alphonse Cioffi, Anthony Miglorie and Henry Battles.

In December we welcomed back Joseph Moore, faculty member and assistant coach, who was honorably discharged from the Army Air Force after serving as athletic instructor in Brazil with the Air Transport Command. Also, delighted at the thought of a real soldier in our class we proudly welcomed to our ranks Max Murray, a returned marine veteran honorably discharged.

Our basketball season saw Richard Mangan as captain with Richard Terenzini as manager. While our team was not privileged to enter the Southern Vermont Tournament, the boys did a fine job all season.

On February 25 our Senior Play "Don't Take My Penny," a three-act comedy, was presented in St. Peter's Hall. "A huge success" inadequately describes this presentation by the following Thespians, Mary Canney, Marcus Carr, Richard Flynn, Betty Nichols, Samuel Cotrupi, Mary Frances Mullin, Dolores Warner, John Shamon, Arthur Courcelle, Charlotte Alexander, Joanne LeVangie, Richard West, Stanley Skaza, Margaret Carroll, Mary Therese Farrell, Helen Combatti and Francis Quinn. Their splendid acting will long be remembered.

Realization of graduation began to dawn upon us as we undertook the compiling of data for our yearbook. Mary Canney was chosen editor-inchief of the 1946 "Mount" and Clement Abatiell business manager.

Pre-war Vermont Interscholastic Debating was resumed under the sponsorship of the University of Vermont. Academy representatives who took part in the debates at the university were Max Murray, Arthur Crowley, Daniel Carroll and Richard West.

On Easter Sunday afternoon our class was honored with the distinction of having one of its members, Rita McCarvel received into the congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph, as Sister William Margaret.

The announcement that Mary Canney and Joanne LeVangie were valedictorian and salutatorian, respectively, of our class called forth our congratulations.

We took part in the May Procession and were guests of the Alumnae at the annual May Breakfast.

The following pupils were graduated from the Music Department May 20: Mary Segale, Charlotte Sullivan, Patricia Battles, Charlotte Alexander, Lucy Flory, and Edward St. Peter.

The annual senior retreat took place the last three days of May.

Commencement activities include the class picnic at Lake St. Catherine, Monday, and senior ball held last night. Graduation day, tomorrow, will open with Holy Mass in the academy chapel, followed by a class Communion Breakfast in the school dining hall. Commencement Exercises will take place in St. Peter's Church, Friday.

This record of our senior year will ever be our treasure, as we try to stifle our regrets at leaving the Academy. Duty calls us forth to help make a better world. Tomorrow a door opens. We go out into the present world, still confused, and in a chaotic condition, seeking a permanent peace. We shall find comfort and assurance in the ideals and principles instilled in us by our priests and Sisters.

CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER,

Historian.

Class Prophecy

Science is, indeed, making world shaking discoveries, but as yet it has not created a wondrous machine, an "Eye to the Future," into which we can look and see ourselves ten or fifteen years hence.

However, we have a power almost as good, if not so accurate, the "Eye of Imagination." Three of us will peer into this machine this evening and will report to you as to the whereabouts of the Class of '46. It should be fun!

RICHARD SULLIVAN is the proud owner of a Turkish Bath in Alaska.

Joanne LeVangie creates an ultra modern style of hats that keeps people guessing.

Mary Canney's coke sessions are now parties to be termed Command Performances.

"Shy" BILL FLORY is still a bachelor. It drives the girls crazy that he's still so elusive.

RICHARD WEST, alas! is still "cutting up." He's chief surgeon at Bellevue Hospital.

We could always find John Noves at Dunn's back in '46. Now he has gone into business for himself! His place of business is called "Johnny's Jilt Joint."

Bernie Hurley can make as much noise as he wants to now. He's one of the best sound effect men in the country.

DICKIE MANGAN has retired to the peace and solitude of the mountains where he is determined he will learn French.

Betty Nichols can be seen hurrying and scurrying everywhere. She is the new "Hedda Hopper."

Donald Looby is now using his high pressure salesmanship to sell insurance.

STANLEY SKAZA, alias Monsieur Henri, is a famous designer of women's clothes.

Mary Segale is professor of Mathematics at the University of Southern California.

Lorraine Lee is enjoying a world-wide reputation as teacher of dancing at Radio City.

Marcus Carr, the great lover has done it again; another "Oscar" for his brilliant acting in "L'amour Toujours."

Paul Bresnehan has converted the "Ark" into a double-decker school bus running between Proctor and Rutland.

Mary Nugent is proprietoress of a sedate little tea room which she calls "Dew Drop Inn."

Gertrude Lenoci is Dean of Women in one of the most exclusive schools in the country.

ART CROWLEY can still hold his own in an argument. He belongs to the firm of Hugh, Diddit and Otta Nobetter, prominent lawyers.

Mary Lee's School of Culture, "Before and After" is the cause of many a young woman's success in life.

Louis Fucci is married to a girl who keeps him happy by an almost steady diet of spaghetti and meat balls. She is the girl he always wanted.

Duff Young plays perfectly the role of "Romeo" with a certain "Juliet of Proctor."

Joe Harrison is in the Merchant Marines. He sails the seven seas and loves it.

Martha Noonan is private secretary to President Truman; she does a perfect job.

Francis Wallett is really "stepping high" these days; he's a professional stilt-walker with Barnum and Bailey Circus.

CLEMENT ABATIELL, having received his M.D., is experimenting with Plastic Surgery—his Victim is Humpty Dumpty.

Pat Hughes' congenial manner as a nurse is the cause of her patients' quick recoveries.

Donald Medlin, "World Traveler and Adventurer," teaches a course in Oriental Customs and Manners at the Academy.

Cheerful, happy Anna Valente has written a book on "How to Win and Keep Friends."

RAYMOND PRATICO is following in the footsteps of the Barber of Seville. He even sings while he works.

CHARLOTTE SULLIVAN is a popular guide for tourists at Radio City.

Danny Carroll is now graduated from M. S. J. and is trying to rebuild the London Bridges.

PAT BATTLES is teaching the fine art of playing piano. She is also tearing her hair out, begging for patience and a few willing pupils.

Lena Segale has written a best-seller, "Stars Over '76 Bridge." I must read that!

CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER has attained her degree in Child Psychology. Her work in Pediatrics as a Junior Nurses' Aide drove her to it.

Doreen Burke is in charge of a leading Art School in New York City.

BILL FOLEY is still looking for tires for his trustworthy old car; he will pay any price.

BARB ROUSSIL's famous bookshop is the delight of many a collector of rare manuscripts.

Marie Stomper is Superintendent of Nurses at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Mary Farrell has gone far on her beautiful voice. She has a brilliant career with Metropolitan Opera.

MARY T. O'CONNOR is a narrator on the new children's radio program, "Mother Goose Stories."

Veronica McArdle is a world famous journalist. She is on the staff of the New York Times.

On the sports page we read about John Mooney's playing football for a midwestern team.

DICK TERENZINI is manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

As water boy for the Rutland Royals we find bashful Peter Giotti.

The driver of the first '56 Buick is none other than Lucy Flory.

YOLANDA CROSTA has just completed a book of mystery, "How to Grow Tall."

Mary Frances Mullin is now one of Hollywood's most talented stars.

JOHN SHAMON is a retired chemist. His discoveries have brought him millions.

DAVID KEEFE is now a script producer for the Bob Hope show.

The "Corny Cobblers" trio consisting of Mary Welch, Anne McLaughlin and KAY TREE can be heard every Saturday evening on "Hit Parade."

Very fortunate indeed are the pupils of Bennington High to have CAROLYN CLARK as their history teacher.

Angela Farino is in charge of the Bureau of Friendly Advice located in Washington.

JIMMY Soulia has opened up a "Toy Shoppe" in Fair Haven. Jimmy got his experience in the toy department of the Economy.

PHYLLIS CHASE is a ski instructor at Pico; the course consists of three easy

Bob Mullin is considered one of the best informed guides at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D. C.

At the information booth in North Station we find our one and only JEAN McMahon.

Leading in the "Fashion Parade" is DICK KEARNEY. He has been named the best dressed man of '56.

Max Murray and Arnold LeFrancois are now the proud owners of a chain of bowling alleys.

Monica Brennan is a night nurse at the Mary Hitchcock Hospital and Alice ABATIELL is an Army Nurse.

In medical research work we find GERRY O'BYRN.

Heading the staff in the Walter Reed Hospital is Mary Quinn, Doctor and Bob Grace is the star of the "It Pays to be Calm and Witty" program recently added to radio productions.

RITA McCARVEL now known as Sister William Margaret is teaching English at the Mount.

MARGARET BACHAND is the principal of the "Live and Learn Kindergarten." PALMA TRAPENI has written a sequel to "Spellbound," "Where Bound."

Mary Alfonso is the sole proprietoress of "Honey's School for Dancing"square dances specialized.

Bernard Kelley is a traveling salesman for "Hinckley's Haberdashery."

JEAN CHAMBERLAND has established permanent residence in Hanover, New Hampshire.

ELAINE LEFEVRE fills up her spare moments teaching driving lessons and selling insurance—on the side.

June Fox is still swooning over Van Johnson, or a reasonable facsimile.

SAMMY COTRUPI's ability is showing itself as Professor of Stenography in Room 4 at M. S. J.—dictation, twenty words a minute.

HELEN COMBATTI is an "Angel of Mercy" in Reed General Hospital. (Nice work-Helen!)

Dolores Warner has at last achieved the position of Medical Stenographer

ROBERTA QUINN'S lunch room in Pittsford brings quite good business, we hear. Alma Lumbra is a successful mannequin for "Winnie's We Make Em-You

A little buzzing and then a sudden click!—yes, the "Eye of Imagination" has closed on this glorious record of the Class of 1946.

Margaret Westcot, Laura Rizziere, Martha Noonan

Class Will

We, the outstanding Class of 1946 aspiring to a place in the stars, great in our own opinion, at least, and deem it both fitting and proper to proclaim this, our Last Will and Testament.

We would like to be remembered by posterity as a class that always paid its just debts, and so we extend to our self-sacrificing priests and Sisters sincere gratitude as the down payment for their untiring interest in us. We will increase the amount in the years to come. We thank Coach Branon and Coach Moore for the pleasant associations we have had with them and their good work in training athletic teams of which the Mount can be justly proud.

Class Alphabet

- A is for Abatiell, Alphonso, and Arthur, for the Clarion "chief" Charlotte Alexander;
- B is for Brennan, and Cheerleader Pat Battles, for Majorette Burke for Blickarz, Bresnehan and Bachand;
- C is for Mary Canney, Mount Editor, valedictorian of our class, for Carroll, Cotrupi, and eleven others, alas!
- O ottie Dwyer stands alone for the D's,
- As Mary Esposito does for the E's;
- The F's include Farino, Farrell, and Fucci, Foley, and Fox and our "all-state" man, Flory;
- G gives us Grace, who is always jolly, also Garofano, June Gale and Giotti;
- H is for Hurley with the sweet tenor voice, for Harrison, Hogan, and Patricia Hughes;
- includes all members of our class; each stalwart lad, and loyal lass;
- I stands for Joseph, our patron so dear; may his spirit ever be hovering near;
- K brings in Kelley, Dave Keefe, and Dick Kearney—sounds like a trio from good old Killarney;
- L lines up Lefevre, LeFrancois, Lenoci, Alma Lumbra, Looby and Joanne LeVangie;
- For M we have Margo, McLaughlin, Mangan, Medlin, Murray, McArdle, and sweet Mary Frances Mullin.
- Of the N's, John Noyes is the only young man, while the girls include Nichols, Nugent and Noonan;
- O is for our fond wishes sincere that we leave to Alma Mater, so dear;
- is for Pratico a barber by trade;
- Q is for the Quinns, our three little maids;
- For R we have the gentle Barbara Roussil, and the Ragosta lassie known as Carmella;
- S is for Stomper, Skaza, Segale, Sullivan, Shamon, Soulia, Scaffide;
- T's for Terenzini, and Kathleen Tree, for our commercial student Palma Trapeni;
- U is for our undying love for the Mount, of truth and knowledge it is the fount;
- V is for the victory God gave to the world; may the flag of peace be forever unfurled;
- W is for Wallet, Welch, Westcot and Warner, for President West and Charmaine Whittemore;
- X marks the spot in the Chemistry lab, where we left our mark on the table top slab;
- Y is for Harold Young the lad from Proctor, he'll always be young without the aid of a doctor;
- Z we'll let stand for four other boys who left us as Juniors to fight for Uncle Sam; Bierwirth, Rotella, Roussil and Notte;
- We wish they were with us,
- We miss them a lot.

Debate

The senior debate team journeyed to Burlington April 25 to take part in the state high school debating tournament held in the Waterman Building.

Four schools entered the contest: Montpelier, Essex Junction, Water-bury, and Mt. St. Joseph. Each team debated three times the proposition: "Resolved that every able-bodied male citizen in the United States should have one year of military training before attaining the age of twenty-four years."

The trophy, to be held in possession for a year, was won by Montpelier high school for scoring the highest number of points. The University of Vermont, under whose sponsorship the tournament was held, awarded five scholarships to the highest individual scorers.

Daniel Carroll of the Mount team was the recipient of one of these awards.

May Procession

"May Day" is one of the most cherished events at the Mount, as the entire student body march in procession from the academy to the "Grotto of Mary," singing hymns in honor of the Mother of God.

Led by the school band, the pupils wend their way to the Chapel where the ceremony of crowning Our Lady's statue takes place. The impressive service is concluded with Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Lorraine Lee, president of the girls' sodality is pictured above, as she crowns the statue of the Blessed Virgin.

Love for "Mary, Queen of Our Hearts and Queen of Our Country," is manifested by the high school girls' Sodality of Our Blessed Mother in each parish of the city. These groups are active socially, as well as spiritually, throughout the year. Sister Mary Francis is directress of St. Peter's Sodality.

Lukeyan Art Club

The Art Club, under the supervision of Sister M. Imelda has produced artistic posters on many occasions, and decorated the blackboards in some of the classrooms at Christmastide. Officers: Doreen Burke, President; Lena Segale, Vice-President; Mary Canney, Secretary; Ann Fagan, Treasurer.

Resident Girls' Club

Officers who got the Resident Students' Club off to a good start under the guidance of Sister M. Imelda are: June Gale, president; Mary Quinn, vice-president; Veronica McArdle, treasurer; and Carolyn Clark, secretary. Their first projects with Gerry O'Byrn and Noella Choquette in charge were crocheting hats, knitting socks, etc. for needy missions in South Dakota and Alabama.

The fall months found the girls playing bingo, dancing and utilizing the school gym. In November a party under the direction of Pat Hurley displayed the talented vocalists, musicians, and dancers among the girls.

In December a second election of officers took place with Geraldine O'Byrn as president; Marie Choquette, vice-president; Noella Choquette, treasurer; and Mary Quinn, secretary. A Christmas pageant was presented by the girls before leaving for the Christmas holidays, at which gifts were exchanged by the Gift Club, headed by Catherine Parsons.

During February the girls put on a play for St. Peter's Sodality at St. Peter's Hall, "Thursdays at Home," and repeated it for the Catholic Woman's Club. The cast included Evelyn Butler, Veronica McArdle, Patricia Hurley, Kathleen Leary, Carolyn Clark, Anne Cormier, June Gale, Catherine Parsons, and Barbara Lipp.

A monthly typed periodical was in charge of Anne Cormier, Editor in Chief; Mary Quinn, assistant; Carolyn Clark, business manager; Irene Dunham, Lois Baker, Noella Choquette, Katherine Parsons and Barbara Lipp, typists; June Gale, Rita Marcoux, Anne Henry, and Dottie Twigg as Feature Editors.

The final election of officers took place in April. Marie Choquette was chosen president; Veronica McArdle, vice-president; Geraldine O'Byrn, secretary; and Evelyn Butler, treasurer.

The senior girls will always treasure the happy days they have spent at the Mount under the kindly guidance of Sister Mary Vincent and Sister Mary Imelda.

Orchestra

The Mt. St. Joseph band and orchestra, under the supervision of Sister Mary Evangelist, have functioned in the usual creditable manner during the school year.

In addition to playing for athletic games and the Catholic School Tournament, the band furnished music for Our Lady's Procession, August 15, for the celebration given Major-General Wing, for Governor's Day, for the Peace Parade, and on Memorial Day at Woodstock and Proctorsville.

The orchestra played for the senior play, minstrel show, music graduation concert, and at grammar and high school Commencement Exercises.

Glee Club

The members of the Glee Club under the direction of Sister M. St. Catherine have added much beauty and pleasure to several programs at the Academy by their charming interpretations of the old masters, as well as those of our own day.

The boys' choir of St. Peter's Church, directed by Mr. George Tousignant, has furnished music every second Sunday at the High Mass, with special programs for Christmas and Easter.

Lively endmen, catchy solos, a grand chorus—all combined to make the 1945 Minstrel a real success. Three performances were given, two at St. Peter's hall, November 21 and 22, and one November 22 at the Rutland High School Auditorium, accompanied by Mr. George Tousignant at the piano and the Mt. St. Joseph Orchestra.

The show was directed by James "Bud" Farrell, with Harold Young '46, interlocutor. Senior soloists were: Paul Bresnehan, David Keefe and Bernard Hurley. Louis Fucci, Lorraine Lee, and Patricia Battles presented specialty dances.

Under the efficient mentorship of Coach Branon, Mount St. Joseph had one of its most successful seasons of football, as the 1945 squad ended its schedule with a record of six wins, two defeats, and one tie. The Green and White Horde also placed three men on the All-State team: Bill Flory, Tom Alberico, and Frankie Cioffi. Tony Miglorie won honors on the second All-State team. During the season the Branonmen piled up a total of 200 points against 43 for their opponents. While the '45 squad was composed chiefly of seniors, Coach Branon will have some juniors and sophomores with plenty of varsity experience to form his grid team for '46.

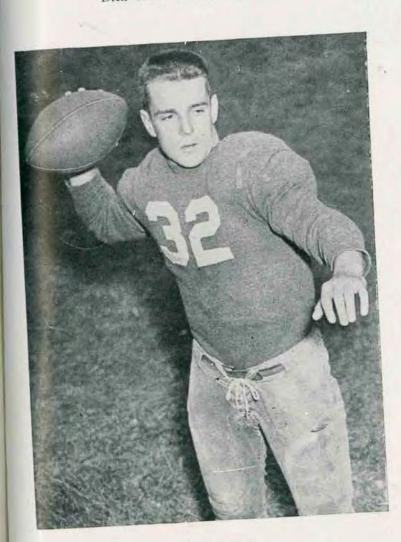

The Acads opened their grid season by dropping a weak St. Mary's eleven by a 49-0 count. The contest was played on even terms in the first half, but in the second period the Academy quartet composed of Flory, West, Miglorie and Cioffi really began to click and the final score showed the spectators that the Green Wave was in for a successful season.

The following week, Mt. St. Joseph traveled over the mountain to chalk up another 13-7 victory, upsetting a big Montpelier eleven from the Capitol City. The two teams played even ball throughout the contest, but the experienced Acads proved to be the downfall of the Solons.

St. Peter's field was the site of the next Mountie victory, as they rolled over a scrappy, but weak and outclassed Windsor eleven, 69-0. Although the Academy and Windsor always put up a good showing formerly, this year's contest was a one-sided affair from the opening kickoff, as the varsity, rounded into good shape, really went to town with outstanding ability.

The Acads' fourth game was a knot in the line, as the Purple from Bellows Falls held the Green and White to a 14-14 tie. Although the Acads out-played the Purple from the start, they did not seem to have the scoring punch, when they were in pay-off territory. Near the end of the game the tiring Acads gave ground to the strong Purple reserves, and that told the story, as the Bellows Falls eleven scored in the closing minutes of the game.

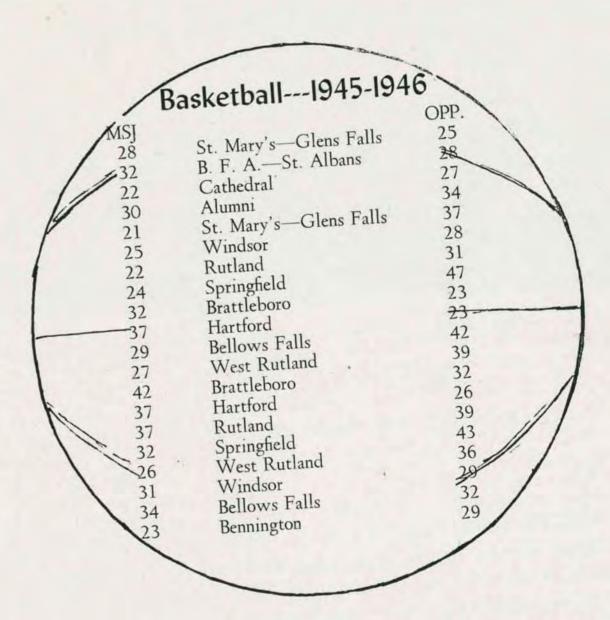

Spaulding dropped the Green and White 6-0 the following Saturday, for the Branonmen's first defeat of the season. Fielding a big and powerful team, the Barre aggregation proved to be the superior eleven that day. Although there was little scoring done, the game was a hard fought contest to the end.

One of the toughest games on the schedule was played on the following Saturday when the Mounties turned back a strong and heads-up Cosmos team from the Machinetown 13-7. Fighting hard all the way each team scored once on lucky breaks. Coming back after the half, tied at 7 all, the Acads pushed across another tally and rode on to their fourth victory.

The Green and Gold of West Rutland were the Mounties' next opponents in a home game, and were turned back 15-0 by a constantly improving Academy eleven. Although the Green Wave outplayed the Green and Gold in the first half the best they could do was to have a two-point lead at the rest period, as a result of a blocked Westside punt in the opening minutes of the game. Going into the third period the Acads pushed across two quick tallies and the reserves took over.

Tuning up for the big game of the season the Mounties overcame a scrappy but defenseless Poultney team 27-7 for the sixth Green and White victory. Using only a limited number of plays the Acads pushed across three touchdowns in the first half and after scoring once more in the third canto the Mountie seconds took over and held the Blue Devils from crossing into pay-dirt but once.

On Monday, November 12, Rutland High School invaded St. Peter's field and turned back the Green and White Horde 2-0 before a crowd of over 3,500 fans. For the Acads, it was really a heart-breaker after tying the Raiders for two years in a row. For many varsity men it was their last game to be played in an Academy grid uniform. Going into the game as favorites, the Raiders lacked the necessary drive when they got in pay-off territory. The first half was played mostly between the two twenties with the Acads threatening only once when they reached the Raider 10 yard line. At the opening of the second half the Acads ran the opening kickoff back for a touchdown only to have it called back for clipping. Neither team threatened until late in that period when Rutland deep in Academy territory lost the ball on downs on the Mountie 5 yard line. Trying to punt out of danger, a bad break gave Rutland an automatic safety and a 2-0 victory.

Basketball

Second row: Joseph Costello, William O'Rourke, Gerald McCue, Frank Aquistapace, Art Westcot, Jack Nolan, Thomas Alberico.

Mt. St Joseph's basketball team ended its season with a mediocre record of eight wins and twelve losses. Although the Green Wave did not have the success of the '45 Mount Five, the team did well with the little experience they had. Being knocked out of the tournament by means of a play-off with Bennington, the Acads had no chance to prove their talent before the tourney crowd.

The Mounties opened the season by dropping St. Mary's of Glens Falls, and then traveling to St. Albans to defeat Bellows Free Academy, 32-28. The following game marked the beginning of the Acads' losing streak as they dropped their first game to Cathedral of Burlington, and lost the following game to St. Mary's of Glens Falls in a return contest.

Opening the Southern Vermont league against Windsor, the Acads fell before the Yellow Jackets by a 28-25 count. Rutland next upset the Academy in the first of the two city encounters to the tune of a 31-22 final score.

The Green and White were next downed by Springfield, 47-24 for the Branonmen's third consecutive defeat in league play. Rebounding from the Springfield defeat the Acads knocked off the Organgrinders from Brattleboro, 32-23. The Academy next defeated Hartford before losing two more contests to the Bellows Falls Purple, and the Green and Gold of West Rutland. Once more the Green and White dropped Brattleboro, 42-32, and defeated Hartford.

Going into the second game of the city series as 15 point underdogs, the Academy quintet lost a heart-breaker to the Red Raiders of Rutland, 39-37, in one of the most thrilling games of the Southern Vermont League. After losing to Rutland the Acads fell apart and were defeated by the Springfield Cosmos and by West Rutland, 36-26. Nearing the end of the season the Wave pulled together and won two close ones defeating Windsor 31-29, and dropping Bellows Falls in the closing game of the league 34-32 to end up in fourth place in league standing with a record of 6 wins and 8 losses.

Following the close of the league season the Mt. St. Joseph Quintet was called up for a play-off game with Bennington for a berth in the Southern Vermont Tournament. The Cats took them into camp 29-23, on the Granville court.

First row: Frank Cioffi, Tom Alberico, Bill Foley, Bill Flory, Captain, Bernie Hurley, Dom Caliguire, Mickey Kelley.

Second row: Vincent Leluikas, Angie DePalma, Dick Flynn, Joe Costello, Funzie Cioffi, Hank Battles.

Third row: Max Murray, Mgr., Ed Senecal, Barry Byrne, Bill Timbers, Henry DelBianco, Jack Terenzini, Mel Harvey, Ed Sullivan, Mgr.

As the call for diamond candidates was sounded, at least fifty prospects reported to Coach Branon hoping to make the grade for a place among the '46 baseball squad. After winning the state championship last year by defeating Winooski, northern champs, the Acads lost many men through graduation and service calls. However, Branon still has the services of Capt. Bill Flory, Bernie Hurley, Mickey Kelley, and Bill Foley, who were members of the '45 winning team. Having lost the services of Joe Czachor, who sustained a broken leg in football last fall, Coach Branon found it difficult to find a man to replace him. Joe figured prominently in winning the Bennington play-off and championship game against Winooski.

Weather conditions, which resulted in little practice, proved harmful to the Green and White team as they got off to a poor start in the Twilight League by losing to Rutland and Proctor before coming into their own by toppling a strong Poultney team.

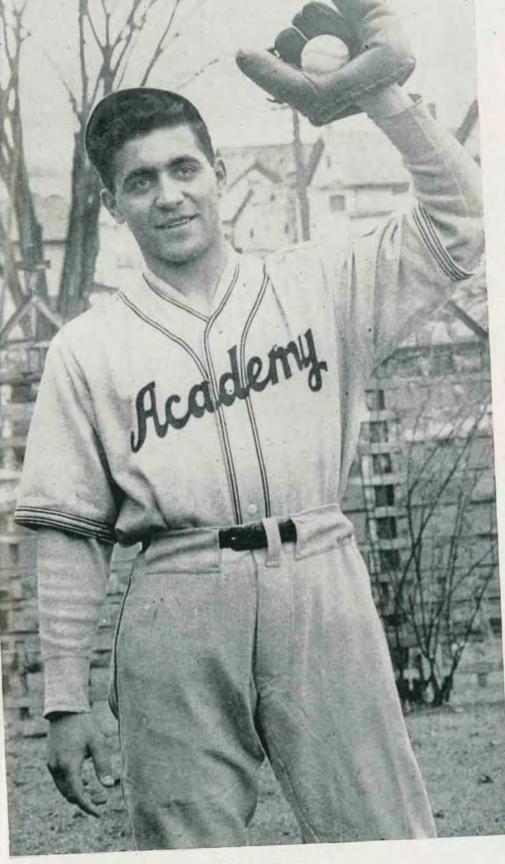

Opening the season against Rutland, the Acads started out well but the Green and White batsmen could not seem to connect, which failure resulted in their downfall as the Red and White aggregation took them into camp 5-3.

Two days later the Acads traveled to Proctor and were held to one hit, as the Phantoms subdued the Branonmen 4-2.

The next game brought better fortune to the Mounties as they garnered 14 hits to drop Poultney 12-5. The Acads had a field day at the plate with three Academy batsmen knocking round trippers to keep the Green and White well out in front.

As the "Mount" goes to press, the Academy is rounding into a topnotch ball club.
